

Key Dates and Materials you need to prepare

● Key Dates

|                        |   |
|------------------------|---|
| April 15, 2012  | Deadline for submission of all materials and reply for acceptance for early-bird applicant          |
| April 30, 2012  | First-round admission announcement for early-bird applicant   |
| June 15, 2012   | Deadline for submission of all materials and reply for acceptance                                   |
| June 28, 2012   | Second-round admission announcement.  |
| August 10, 2012 | Deadline for submission of all materials (letter in hard copy with notarization and stamp via post) |

● Materials you need to prepare with you application form

1. Certificate stating that the applicant who has had or once had dual nationality has lost his/her citizenship to the Republic of China (if available)
2. Certificate of the highest education diploma (those in languages other than Chinese and English should be translated into Chinese or English)
3. Transcripts of the highest education diploma (those in languages other than Chinese and English should be translated into Chinese or English)

4. Two sealed recommendation letters
5. Study plan (for detail information of the department program, please see from university website)
6. Certificates of outstanding performances (those in languages other than Chinese and English should be translated into Chinese or English)
7. Proof of English proficiency e.g. TOEIC, TOEFL, IELTS
8. Recent photograph (1"x2")
9. Photo copy of the passport page bearing the name and nationality of the holder
10. Job certificate (if available)
11. Receipt of remittance for application fee.

Note: Admission letter will be sent to the applicant after announcement. Applicant will be asked to reply for acceptance and to submit all the required materials, including two sealed recommendation letters, in hard copy to the admission office. The applicant who fails to submit the required materials will be revoked qualification for admission.

Chinese Culture University

